Opening in Holland this Summer!

Eat, Drink and Be Merry

In 1933 when prohibition died, liquors of all types could once again be purchased legally. Weeks after the demise of the no drinking law, Turk Allison opened Turk's Inn in Nunica, MI.
Now it is one of the oldest businesses in Ottawa County.
Although Turk himself hasn't owned the restaurant for many years, the nickname, Turk's has stuck with it.

Now we have transplanted a little of that post-prohibition era charm from Nunica to Holland. We hope you enjoy your Turk's experience and always remember to

Eat, Drink, and Be Merry!
